Tasting Notes:

Exuberante is spicy and complex in style. Its aroma offers dried sour cherries, watermelon rind, red roses, and raspberry. The flavor shows blood orange, white peach, and rooibos tea. It is off-dry in sweetness. Enjoy it now through three years, and enjoy it on its own. For pairing, try oven fried chicken, chicken kebobs, or Cobb salad. In conclusion, this off-dry, fun, brunch-luncheon-picnic bubbles overflows with ripe berries and blood orange zing. It is a crowd pleaser that is a great foil for spicy food.
